

Guidelines and technical details for submitting abstracts for posters for the FOOD 2030 Networks Conference 2026

The FOOD 2030 Networks Conference 2026: public engagement and impact towards food systems transformation, taking place in Dublin on 25 and 26 November 2026, aims to showcase how the projects and living labs in FOOD 2030 Networks contribute to public engagement and impact in relation to food systems transformation. The conference is organised by the CLEVERFOOD project in collaboration with members of the FOOD 2030 Networks.

Alongside the plenary sessions and parallel workshops, the conference will feature a poster session on Wednesday 25 November 2026. We invite projects, living labs and other initiatives to submit an abstract to present a poster on their work.

Submission of abstracts

Abstracts must be sent by email to info@food2030.eu by Sunday 18 October 2026 (23:59 CEST), as a PDF or Word (.docx) file. Each abstract should include:

- Title: maximum 20 words.
- Authors and affiliations: all contributors and their institutions.
- Project(s) and/or living lab(s): any associated project(s), partnership(s), network(s) and/or living lab(s), communities of practice and other co-creation initiatives that have contributed to the work presented in the poster.
- Funding source(s): the source(s) of funding that have contributed to financing the work presented in the poster.
- Abstract text: maximum 250 words.
- Keywords: up to 5 keywords.

Technical details

Presenters are responsible for printing their poster and bringing it to the venue. Posters must be in A1 format (594 × 841 mm), portrait orientation; this size is required due to venue restrictions. Posters must be mounted on the Skywalk on Wednesday 25 November 2026, before the official programme begins at 12:00.

Assessment and prioritisation of submitted abstracts

Priority will be given to posters on topics aligned with the main theme of the conference, as well as to those submitted by members of the FOOD 2030 Networks. All submitters will be notified by Friday 23 October 2026 whether their poster has been accepted.

The deadline for submitting abstracts for posters is Sunday 18 October 2026 (23:59 CEST). If you have any questions about the call for posters, please contact us via email at info@food2030.eu.
